The figure (The Shadow) first appeared on the radio in the 1930s before his stories were developed into a comic-strip. This self-portrait drawing is based on a photograph of Warhol as this character and although he doesn ' t wear The Shadow ' s black cloak or broad-rimmed hat, the lighting used causes a strong shadow to be cast of his profile.

‘ The Shadow ’ , Andy Warhol, 1981 | Tate

Warhol used details from photographs that his assistants took of objects and the shadows that they cast, exaggerating and screenprinting only the shadows. Critics at the first exhibition of the works tried to guess what objects were casting the shadow, but their presentation in paint, with a sprinkle of diamond dust, makes such speculation futile.
