The best one was the first book Champagne kisses. I believe these are the only 3 books that this author has written. By the last book of the 3 the life of Eva Valentine, the character in the books was beginning to run a bit dry. Its a shame as the first book was fairly good but i feel the author felt she had to continue to create unbelievable dramas for Eva to have to make the third book ...

Champagne Kisses: A Timeless Love Story was different. It was a complete story, even though it spanned over 20 years. Ms. Lakes created two worlds - the carefree, lust-filled past of young lovers and contrasted it with the serious, work-focused, insulated present. Then, she allowed her characters to mature and face past hurts as they learned how to love again. She revisited characters from Following on from Champagne Kisses, the spoilt diva finds that Trouble is still her middle name. After a near-death experience which left her in a deep coma, Eva survives against all odds and quickly marries the man who nursed her back to health. Boozing her way through her wedding and three-week honeymoon in Mauritius, Eva is shocked to learn that she is already three months pregnant. She ...
