The dribble drive motion is a great offense for all ages and skill levels. It's best utilized by teams who have aggressive and capable ball-handlers who can attack their opponents in one-on-one situations and get to the rim and finish. If possible, teams should also have several players who have the ability to knock down open three-point shots.

The dribble drive motion offense is not just about teaching basketball skills- it also requires you to drill a relentless “attack” mentality into your players. This week, I’ve put together 11 classic dribble drive motion drills that teach skills fundamental to the offense. Because of the uniqueness of this offense, my team had one special criteria when researching drills-each of these drills had to be presented by either Coach Calipari, or the creator of the DDM, Coach Vance Walberg.

The Dribble Drive Motion Offense - or Princeton on steroids as University of Kentucky coach John Calapari called it - was invented by coach Vance Walberg only a few years ago. There isn't a lot of information about it out there, but this book is an instruction manual in the Dribble Drive Offense, there to fill the void. The manual deals with the strengths and weaknesses of the Dribble Drive, the fundamentals needed to run the offense, the basics needed to run it, how to enter into it, off the break or from a half court set, the reads and X's and O's and how to teach it. The book contains 40 pages of drills, including the best of Vance Walberg's and John Calipari's drills. Also it contains four appendixes which detail special plays and quick hitters, playing against a sagging defence, two oone offences, and a complimentary screening type offence. Black and White Version - more expensive color version also available. See www.coachdribbledrive.com

Game Strategy and Tactics for Basketball: Preparing to Win the Sideline Battles is both a how-to book and a guide for how to plan strategy and tactics for basketball for an entire season or an individual game. Coaches often focus on X's and O's and overlook how and when a particular offense or defense should be applied and used during a game. Game Strategy and Tactics for Basketball: Preparing to Win the Sideline Battles serves as a planning guide and a master checklist for all the possible situations that a coach will face during a season. The book includes both traditional and some "out-of-the-box" strategies to the common situations that coaches face and provides both the pros and the cons of the approaches described. It is not the author's intention to tell each coach exactly what to do, but to serve as a guide in the decision making process. About the author: A 24 year veteran of the coaching profession, with twenty-two of those years spent as a varsity head coach, Coach Kevin Sivils amassed 464 wins and his teams earned berths in the state playoffs 19 out of 22 seasons with his teams advancing to the state semi-finals three times. An eight time Coach of the Year Award winner, Coach Sivils has traveled as far as the Central African Republic to conduct coaching clinics. Coach Sivils first coaching stint was as an assistant coach for his college alma mater, Greenville College, located in Greenville, Illinois. His teams were always known for their discipline, intense effort, execution of fundamentals, and team play. Coach Sivils is also the owner of KCS Basketball Enterprises, LLC, an enterprise focused on providing coaches with information to improve their knowledge of the game of basketball and their ability to coach. "If you have been looking for a rigorously thorough handbook on basketball tactics and strategy, you have found it!" Coach Doug Porter - Head Women's Coach, Olivet Nazarene University National Scoring leaders: 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference Champions: 2000, 2005, 2007 "His thought provoking approach makes for an easy read and will definitely stimulate thought and, most likely, change the way you go about coaching!" Rusty Rogers - Two time NAIA Division II Women's National Championship Coach and Two time NAIA National Coach of the Year "Coach Sivils clearly brings his experience in the game of basketball to his writing. He is a great teacher who acquired great gifts over the years and it's great he wants to share those gifts with other coaches." Bill Reidy - Long time successful high school and AAU coach

Over the span of an 11-year professional playing career, Joe Crispin played for approximately 28 different coaches in the NBA, ABA, CBA, Greece, Poland, Italy, Spain, Turkey, and Ukraine. He played fast, slow and everything in between for coaches all over the world. His diverse experience and unique perspective led him to clarify twelve principles that every player wants in basketball offense. Currently the head coach at Rowan University, this was written before he ever coached a game at any level of play. He wrote as an 11-year professional to better inform his future coaching self. The only words from the coach come as practical lessons in applying these principles to his teams today. The old adage is that defense wins championships, but as Crispin contends, that is only true when you can score (or in the NBA, when you have 2 or 3 of the best offensive players in the world). Offense matters immensely to every basketball player in the world (and even more to the fans). It affects how well you play defense and even how you choose to play defense. Offense wins in more ways than you think. No matter what level you coach, Crispin's principles will challenge you to think through your philosophy and adjust your teaching in order to prepare a happier and more effective basketball offense. You may even end up believing that offense wins.
