struck me because of its timing—just as I'm looking for a translation of Márai's novel about Gyula Krúdy (no luck in that search), and then, miracles of miracles, it was in my little town's library.

A Common Reader: Embers by Sándor Márai

Sándor Márai (originally Sándor Károly Henrik Grosschmied de Mára) was a Hungarian writer and journalist. He was born in the city of Kassa in Austria-Hungary (now Košice in Slovakia) to an old family of Saxon origin who had mixed with magyars through the centuries. Through his father he was a relative of the Ország-family.
