"[A] stunning tale of academic fraud... shocking and compelling."-The Washington Post Dave Tomar wrote term papers for a living. Technically, the papers were "study guides," and the companies he wrote for-there are quite a few-are completely aboveboard and easily found with a quick web search. For as little as ten dollars a page, these paper mills provide a custom essay, written to the specifics of any course assignment. During Tomar's career as an academic surrogate, he wrote made-to-order papers for everything from introductory college courses to Ph.D. dissertations. There was never a shortage of demand for his services. The Shadow Scholar is the story of this dubious but all-too-common career. In turns shocking, absurd, and ultimately sobering, Tomar explores not merely his own misdeeds but the bureaucratic and cash-hungry colleges, lazy students, and even misguided parents who help make it all possible.

Volumes in Writing Spaces: Readings on Writing offer multiple perspectives on a wide-range of topics about writing, much like the model made famous by Wendy Bishop's "The Subject Is . . ." series. In each chapter, authors present their unique views, insights, and strategies for writing by addressing the undergraduate reader directly. Drawing on their own experiences, these teachers-as-writers invite students to join in the larger conversation about developing nearly every aspect of craft of writing. Consequently, each essay functions as a standalone text that can easily complement other selected readings in writing or writing-intensive courses across the disciplines at any level. Topics in Volume 1 of the series include academic writing, how to interpret writing assignments, motives for writing, rhetorical analysis, revision, invention, writing centers, argumentation, narrative, reflective writing, Wikipedia, patchwriting, collaboration, and genres.

Provides guidelines and examples for handling research, outlining, spelling, punctuation, formatting, and documentation.

Keys to Successful Writing, An essay-level rhetoric/reader/handbook, prepares student writers for college, career, and everyday writing success by illustrating the writing process as a process of reading, thinking, and writing. The distinctive five "key" heuristic of purpose, focus, material, structure, and style, developed by the author and tested in her classrooms, helps students focus on the writing process and critical thinking that will make them stronger writers.

You have found the book to help you survive your whole high school and college years! Have you ever had a essay paper due and just had nothing...no ideas, nowhere to begin, nowhere to start...just staring at a blank screen or piece of paper? This book is here to help you find a topic to write on and even before that, show you the steps you need to take so you don't waste your time before you even begin starting your research and writing your paper. You will find the following categories with tons of topics in each: -Animal, Energy, and Environment -Business -Crime and Law -Drug Abuse -Education -Family and Children Issues -Government and Political Issues -Health -Media and Communications -Psychology -Religion -Science and Technology -Social Issues -Terrorism -Women and Gender -World Issues Don't worry if you don't see your specific category, because it could be a topic. Even if it isn't, these topics are great starting points to add another topic to one you currently have and/or are maybe struggling with. It could also give you ideas on where to take a topic if you already have one chosen. Usually combining two topics can lead to a more in-depth and focused research paper, but it really depends on what your assignment asks for. In addition there are over 30 questions to help focus your research, find your supporting points, and help to begin your paper and write your thesis. No topic and no supporting points equal no thesis, no research paper and the clock is tick tick ticking. There are also quick links within the e-book to help you navigate and jump around within the categories with ease and convenience, if you decide you want to change topics. This book will be a great addition to help any student who needs help finding a research topic and starting their paper!

The visionary author's masterpiece pulls us—along with her Black female hero—through time to face the horrors of slavery and explore the impacts of racism, sexism, and white supremacy then and now. Dana, a modern black woman, is celebrating her twenty-sixth birthday with her new husband when she is snatched abruptly from her home in California and transported to the antebellum South. Rufus, the white son of a plantation owner, is drowning, and Dana has been summoned to save him. Dana is drawn back repeatedly through time to the slave quarters, and each time the stay grows longer, more arduous, and more dangerous until it is uncertain whether or not Dana's life will end, long before it has a chance to begin.
