Part tell-all, part cautionary tale, this emotionally charged memoir from a former video vixen nicknamed 'Superhead' goes beyond the glamour of celebrity to reveal the inner workings of the hip-hop dancer industry—from the physical and emotional abuse that’s rampant in the industry, and which marked her own life—to the excessive use of drugs, sex and bling. Once the sought-after video girl, this sexy siren has helped multi-platinum artists, such as Jay-Z, R. Kelly and LL Cool J, sell millions of albums with her sensual dancing. In a word, Karrine was H-O-T. So hot that she made as much as $2500 a day in videos and was selected by well-known film director F. Gary Gray to co-star in his film, A Man Apart, starring Vin Diesel. But the film and music video sets, swanky Hollywood and New York restaurants and trysts with the celebrities featured in the pages of People and In Touch magazines only touches the surface of Karrine Steffans' life. Her journey is filled with physical abuse, rape, drug and alcohol abuse, homelessness and single motherhood—all by the age of 26. By sharing her story, Steffans hopes to shed light on an otherwise romanticised industry and help young women avoid the same pitfalls she encountered. If they're already in danger, she hopes to inspire them to find a way to dig themselves out of what she knows first-hand to be a cycle of hopelessness and despair.

Karrine Steffans has been on an incredible journey since birth. Infamous for chronicling her tumultuous youth, her questionable life choices, and her rise as a New York Times and international best selling author, this cultural icon, this vixen, started with prose. Writing since the age of five, Steffans was inspired when discovering Edgar Allan Poe at that impressionable age. Motivated by her grandfather, later that year, she aimed for the coveted New York Times best sellers list. Twenty years later, she made it and it all started with poetry. In this booklet, the author shares some of her autobiographical poetry, once lost, and the origin of the inspiration to share them.

With acerbic wit and raw honesty, actress Rosa Blasi—star of ABC ’ s The Whole Truth, Make It Or Break It and Hollywood ’ s The Grudge—shares the intimate and laugh-out-loud funny details of her misadventures in dating professional athletes, a bad habit that lasted from her first high school football player boyfriend until a decade of ’roid rage and pathological cheating led to her embrace a life of sports star sobriety. With echoes of Chelsea Handler ’ s on-her-back honesty; Karrine Steffans ’ behind-the-scenes confessionals; the steamy, tell-all spice and humor of Jenna Jameson ’ s How to Make Love Like a Porn Star, and the sports world sensibilities of Jose Canseco ’ s Juiced, Rosa ’ s Jock Itch is an unforgettable, unmissable true tale of her lessons in life, love, and linebackers.

A liberating journey through the life and times of Brittany Renner. This book details the experiences of a woman whom some love and others love to hate. It's a behind-the-scenes look into her life. Some may categorize and prejudge without knowing her story, but here is her truth. Written in a raw and real voice with wittiness and humor, Brittany allows you to walk a mile in her shoes. Depending on your appetite for truth and reality, this book may make you laugh, cry, cringe, or all of the above. You should never judge a book by its cover.

You only think you want this life . . . Alex Maxwell is planning her wedding to up-and coming music artist Birdie, ghostwriting video vixen Cleopatra Wright ’ s memoir, and she ’ s just been assigned the story of the year by her editor in chief at a major music industry magazine—an article about the glamorous lives of women married to platinum-selling hip-hop artists. Alex has been interviewing celebrities and hangers-on long enough to know all that glitters isn ’ t gold, so she ’ s determined to get the real scoop. Still, it ’ s not going to be easy to get past the wives ’ gilded cages. . . Beth Saddlebrook, wife of aging rapper Z. They have three beautiful boys and a seemingly endless supply of cash. But Beth spends her days trying to keep Z off drugs and fielding calls from women hollering she ’ s just a “ small-town white bitch ” and claiming to be carrying Z ’ s baby. Only one person understands what she ’ s going through. . . Kipenzi Hill, multiplatinum-selling R&B artist and Beth ’ s best friend. Her relationship with rap star and record label president Jake is an open secret in the industry. She knows Jake loves her, but he ’ d rather break up than publicly acknowledge it. Now she has learned that the newest (and much younger) R&B sensation Bunny has been signed to Jake ’ s label. Josephine Bennett, wife to Jamaican singer and ü berproducer Ras Bennett. Josephine doesn ’ t just want to spend her husband ’ s money, she wants to contribute. Her fashion company is finally starting to get media attention when her husband admits to something she ’ s suspected all along—he ’ s fallen in love with another woman. Cleopatra Wright, every man ’ s dream girl, a video vixen with a story to tell and scores to settle. Cleo ’ s got that thing no one can put a finger on and no man (or woman) can resist. Some would call her evil or misguided or both, but Cleo always moves with a purpose and she ’ ll stop at nothing to get what she wants. . . Alex realizes she may have more in common with these women than she ’ d like. What if this is a glimpse of how her life will be if Birdie finally gets signed to a major label? Stuck between her loyalty to this newfound sisterhood and her obligation to write the truth, Alex is forced to rethink everything she knows about work, friendship, and love.
