Challenges that will jog our "that's not fair" mind-set. And so I would like to share five basic complexes, or membership categories perhaps, that this parable challenges. And actually, it is not just about church membership, it's about an attitude that many times we can have regardless. But sometimes it's found in churches and its helpful to ...

Sermon: That's Not Fair!

Life's unfairness can lead us to bitterness and cynicism. It can generate fear and dread in us as we think about the future. But none of this is necessary. We can adjust to life's unfairness. When something happens to us that's not fair, we simply declare it so and adjust to it. We admit the unfairness.
