Work Like A Woman

Small minds and attitudes from both sexes need to change. The workplace system simply cannot remain as it was decades ago when it was mostly made up of men. It is not women who should adapt to the status quo, but the status quo and the culture around it that need to change and evolve to enable men and women to bring their best

Mary Portas: Let's create an unstoppable force for change ... Being authentic and vulnerable about her own journey, interspersed with shocking facts and figures, and other women's (and men's) personal stories, makes Work Like A Woman a compulsive read, an example of a female style of power, and a manifesto to get behind. There was a problem loading the comments at the moment.

Showering is the first step to looking like a woman. So much is done in the shower, including shaving, washing your hair, and getting generally clean. Females are known for having smooth skin, clean and shiny hair, and a clean body, so take your time. You may also need to spend some money on this step. Buy quality razors to shave with.
